Plaintiff,

v.

Defendants.

Case No. 3:13-cv-1221-DGW-SCW

ORDER

WILKERSON, Magistrate Judge:

Now pending before the court are the Motion to have all Counterclaims Deemed Filed and Answered filed by Defendant Union Carbide Corporation (Doc. 219), the Motion for Extension of Time filed by Chevron USA, Inc. and Texaco, Inc. (Doc. 416), the Motions to Dismiss (Docs. 418, 420, 436), the Motion for a More Definite Statement (Doc. 432), the Motion for Leave to File Responsive Pleadings (Doc. 438), and the Motion to Amend the Complaint (Doc. 444).

The Motion to Amend the Complaint is GRANTED (Doc. 444), no objection having been filed. Plaintiff shall file her amended pleading by August 22, 2014.¹ The Motions to Dismiss and Motion for More Definite Statement are MOOT (Docs. 418, 420, 436, 432); Defendants are granted leave to refile upon the filing of the Amended Complaint. The Motion for Extension of Time and Motion for Leave to File are GRANTED (Docs. 416, 438). Defendants' Chevron U.S.A, Inc. and Texaco, Inc., responsive pleadings are deemed timely filed. Defendant Exxon ¹ The proposed Amended Complaint lists as a Defendant Kelly Moore Paint Company, Inc., a Defendant to which a stipulation of dismissal has been filed (Doc. 434). Plaintiff is reminded that any stipulation filed pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1)(ii) must be signed by all parties in this action who have appeared, not just the Plaintiff. This means that any stipulation must in fact be filed as a motion pursuant to Rule 41(a)(2).

Mobile Corporation to file responsive pleading to the Amended Complaint within the time provided by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(3).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5(c)(1)(B)

Pursuant to the Hearing held on June 13, 2014, certain Defendants have submitted a proposed order, and the Standing Orders of the state courts that handle asbestos litigation in this District, related to the “institution of denials” allowed by the Federal Rules. Rule 5(c)(1) provides:

In General. If an action involves an unusually large number of defendants, the court may, on motion or on its own, order that:

(B) any crossclaim, counterclaim, avoidance, or affirmative defense in those pleadings and replies to them will be treated as denied or avoided by all other parties

This seldom used Rule only applies to pleadings and does not excuse the filing of papers with the court or service upon Plaintiff. This case, as in other cases that raise claims related to asbestos exposure, generally is filed against dozens of Defendants who tend to file similar pleadings that include identical affirmative defenses, crossclaims, and counterclaims. Defendants also tend to file similar responses to these claims. It is not until discovery has begun that a vast majority of Defendants are dismissed, some with prejudice. It would accordingly be economical for the Court to deem crossclaims, counterclaims, avoidance, and affirmative defenses as being denied and avoided as to all other Defendants. Union Carbide Corporation’s Motion seeking such relief is GRANTED (Doc. 219).

Attached to this Order is a proposed Order/stipulation generated by certain Defendants that is ADOPTED herein as if fully set forth except with respect to the following paragraphs:

4. That all crossclaims are deemed severed from Plaintiff's action for both discovery and separate trial, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 21, 13(i), and 42(b);

5. That Defendants reserve the right to file additional crossclaims and affirmative defenses against one another no later than 60 days prior to trial in the severed action;

6. That upon Plaintiff's voluntary dismissal of any Defendant, or the Court's dismissal of all of Plaintiff's claims against any Defendant, the remaining Defendants' crossclaims are deemed dismissed without prejudice as to the dismissed Defendant pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(c); if, however, a remaining Defendant wishes to maintain its crossclaim against the dismissed Defendant, it must assert its crossclaims within 21 days of the dismissal.

It does not appear to be efficient to sever crossclaims into a new action. As noted above, Defendants each will essentially be asserting the same crossclaims, counterclaims, and/or affirmative defenses. The list of Defendants also will likely be whittled down to only a few Defendants against whom this case will proceed to trial. Therefore, it does not appear efficient to sever the crossclaims of all Defendants into a wholly new lawsuit when it is likely that most of those claims will be dismissed by operation of Orders in this suit. It also appears inefficient to compel Defendants to engage in discovery at this stage of the proceedings on these crossclaims both because a majority will not go to trial and because most of these crossclaims appear to raise legal, as oppose to factual, issues. Therefore, the Court STAYS discovery on the crossclaims. This matter currently has February 15, 2015 deadline for the amendment of pleadings and a discovery deadline of August 15, 2015. This matter is set for a telephonic status conference on March 18, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. Plaintiff shall initiate the conference call by conferencing in all parties and then calling the Court at 618-482-9004. At that conference, the parties should be prepared the discuss discovery on the crossclaims and the potential for separate dispositive motions on those claims.

Any additional Defendant, who has entered an appearance, who wishes to join in the attached stipulation must do so by September 3, 2014 by filing a Notice with the Court. Any other Defendant who wishes to join in the attached stipulation must file a Notice with the Court on the date that their Answer is due. As noted in the Scheduling Order (Doc. 378), dismissal of a party automatically results in dismissal of the cross/counter claims made by or against that party unless an objection is filed within 5 days of the motion to dismiss.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, The Motion to Amend the Complaint is GRANTED (Doc. 444). Plaintiff shall file her amended pleading by August 22, 2014. Union Carbide Corporation's Motion Rule 5(c)(1)(B) Relief is GRANTED (Doc. 219). The Motions to Dismiss and Motion for More Definite Statement are MOOT (Docs. 418, 420, 436, 432). The Motion for Extension of Time and Motion for Leave to File are GRANTED (Docs. 416, 438). This matter is SET for a telephonic status conference on March 18, 2015 at 2:00 p.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
